

POST-EVENT PARTY TIPS

The J.P. Morgan Corporate Challenge Virtual would not be complete without a post-event closing celebration! Use our Post-Event Party Tips as you remix this year’s post-race festivities with your teams virtually, from the comfort of your home. Here’s a list of fun ideas to get you started.

Set the Time

Send a meeting invite for a team call (video preferred) to connect after the run is over and follow up with reminders.

Compete

Check the Leaderboard and celebrate your company's top finishers.

Discover who ran the greatest number of times throughout the event days.

Invite your team to contribute their favorite running / workout songs to a collaborative playlist.

Music

Ask musicians from your company to play a virtual show for your team.

Share

Remind your team to use #JPMCC when sharing stories on social throughout the Virtual Event.

Share any fun moments from the event during your post-event team call.

Food & Drink

Send redemption codes to your teammates from your favorite food delivery app.

Using #JPMCC, post on social to show the global Corporate Challenge community how you and your team are closing out this year's event.

Create Your Post-Event Party

Ask a coworker chef to teach your team how to make their favorite post-workout snack.

Pour your favorite local drink and share your choices with your team.*
